🧠 SKILLS

HTML   ● ● ● ● ●
I'm good at HTML5. I've lots of projects on front-end. You can check it on GitHub.

CSS   ● ● ● ● ●
Vanilla CSS is one of the most useful things to decorate the web properly. I have huge experience working in the front-end with CSS3.

Bootstrap   ● ● ● ● ●
Bootstrap is a very useful framework of CSS. It's just made developer life way too easy. I used this specific framework since I learned to build up the front-end.

JavaScript   ● ● ● ● ○
I've experience of 6 months using JavaScript. Now it's my first language. I've solved a lot of problems using JS.

ReactJs   ● ● ● ● ○
React JS is the most used library of JS. I'm still learning React. Hope I'm going to be an expert on that in a few months.

📁 PROJECTS

Ema-John SPA fully Functioned Website ⧉
This is an e-commerce website built up with React JS. Where I used Local storage to save data and re-use it when the user logs in again. And I used firebase to authenticate the user. I'm still working on that to become my first satisfying work.

Cars Doctor ⧉
This is a car servicing website built with React JS. For user authentication I used firebase. This website is still under construction. If the process is complete I am gonna update this website.

Panda Commerce ⧉
This is an e-commerce website landing page using HTML, CSS, Bootstrap, JS.

Pin Matcher ⧉
Nowadays it's become a very useful thing in our life. When we open any kind of account for verification purposes sometimes we get a pin to check whether it's the verified user or not. So I've tried to build a Pin matcher application where it's matched the generate pin with your entered pin. I've used JS.

Live Weather Forecast ⧉
This is my project using JS and simple HTML, CSS. I used API for the first time on that project. With this website, you can get the current weather conditions of any country around the world. Just search the city name then click the search button.

Phone Chaser ⧉
This website is about detailing your special phone. Just search specific phone names if it had on the API it would show the details of your desired phone. I used JS, bootstrap, and plain HTML to build this site.

Insta Good ⧉
You can say this website is a clone of Instagram. I've tried to build a website like Insta where you can like a post or report a post. And can see it on the specific section in the navbar.

Countries Info Using API ⧉
This is a website where you can see all the countries' info around the world. I used rest API to make it visible. Besides that, I've built a lot of projects for my practicing purposes you can make a visit to my GitHub which is mentioned on the top of the resume.
